

Evaluation Warning: The document was created with Spire.Doc for .NET.

MARKETING TEAM

Constructors Limited

Team
Performance
Assessment
Results

Dear Brodie,

Thank you for completing the Team Performance Assessment. Below is your full team report, based on the survey questions answered by your team members. We have included recommended actions, based on your score, and a range of resources that you may also find useful to develop your team.

Our intention is that, by the end of reading this report, you will have decided on at least one, viable, energizing action that you will undertake to increase the performance of your team. If you do not find an action or are stuck, please send us a quick email to hello@brilliantassessment.com so that we may help you further.

Your Team Information

Number of respondents assessed?	0
---------------------------------	---

Overall Performance Rating

This assessment measures how well your team rates against the three most important ingredients of collaborative high performance.

- Context: To what extent the team engages with others outside the team, its readiness for change and current team dynamics
- Clarity: To what extent the team has clarity about the future and goals through to the effectiveness of people and business processes that enable the achievement of goals
- Connection: To what extent the team members positively relate to one another and you as their leader

Your overall team performance score is 63%

This is RatingText2 for Orange

